Description	A medical writer, also referred to as medical communicator, is a person who applies the principles of clinical research in developing clinical trial documents that effectively and clearly describe research results, product use, and other medical information. The medical writer develops any of the five modules of the Common Technical Document. The medical writers also ensure that their documents comply with regulatory, journal, or other guidelines in terms of content, format, and structure. The lecture started around 9:30 am and ended around 4:00 PM. The lecture was received with admiration by the students and they also found the slides appropriate. The event ended with honorarium to the guests and vote of thanks.

Name of the Activity	DRUG REGULATORY AFFAIRS CHEMIST
Type of the Activity	Add on /Certificate program
Date and Time of Activity	15/03/2024 to 20/03/2024	09.30 am to 04.00 pm
Details of Participants	79
Organizing Dept./Support System	Pharmacy
Resource Person	Dr. Ampati Srinivas
Description	The growth in advancement and up-gradation of technology in machinery has led to manufacture all kinds of Pharmaceutical Machinery in India. As low technology offerings have been faster in the initial stage, the Indian machinery today is considered as one of the value-added engineering's with the integration of new technologies. More than 350 facilities in India's pharmaceutical machine manufacturing industry are present. The India pharmaceutical machinery industry is currently catering to the segments of tableting and capsulation, powder processing, material handling, R&D equipment and instrumentation, coating, bulk drug plant installation etc. The SME sector facilitates around 800 pharmaceutical machine manufacturing and allied utility service units. Majority of these units undertake the supply of custom-made machineries using the location advantage of buyers and job works. The lecture started around 9:30 am and ended around 4:00 PM. The lecture was received with admiration by the students and they also found the slides appropriate. The event ended with honorarium to the guests and vote of thanks.
